

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 484

By Briggs

A RESOLUTION to commend Dylan Kade Guthrie for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Dylan Kade Guthrie is one such individual who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for Senator Richard Briggs and Representative Martin Daniel; Mr. Guthrie's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, where he is highly regarded by his peers, Mr. Guthrie has achieved academic success while majoring in political science and economics and participating in numerous extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, in the future, he plans to pursue the world of public or foreign service in order to inspire and positively impact the lives of others; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further his studies, Dylan Guthrie brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2017 session of the One Hundred Tenth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, nominated "Friendliest and Most Non-Partisan" by his intern class, Mr. Guthrie arrived early every day in order to avoid Nashville traffic, and he learned many alternate routes home; although he does not eat sweets, he successfully learned to hoard them in the office for others; and

WHEREAS, the third floor resident IT person, Dylan Guthrie solved computer issues for every staff person and most senators; he mastered online surveys and is now proficient in creating large databases; and

WHEREAS, a native of Lawrenceburg, he is grateful for the love and support he shares with his parents, Jonathan and Julie Guthrie, his sister, Sasha, and his brother, Braden; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2017 legislative session, Dylan Guthrie has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Dylan Guthrie has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED TENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Dylan Kade Guthrie for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Richard Briggs and Representative Martin Daniel and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.
